

Kings Week 47

- I. God wants all of His Words to be proclaimed
- A. Jeremiah was _____ to speak all the words of the prophecy
 - B. Jeremiah was reminded that some may listen to the message
 - C. Jeremiah was told to warn them because of the _____ to come
- II. God wants all of His words to be followed
- A. The Israelites were challenged to _____ their ways
 - B. The Israelites were challenged not to trust in _____ words
 - C. The Israelites were told to execute justice
 - D. The Israelites were commanded not to go after other _____
- III. God wants the lives of His children to be different
- A. Our lives should _____ the God we say we serve
 - B. Our sacrifices should be _____ on obedience

CONCLUSION

- Are you following and proclaiming _____ of God's words?
- Are you willing to repent and amend your ways?
- Are you living _____ than the world around you?

Kings Week 47

- I. God wants all of His Words to be proclaimed
- A. Jeremiah was _____ to speak all the words of the prophecy
 - B. Jeremiah was reminded that some may listen to the message
 - C. Jeremiah was told to warn them because of the _____ to come
- II. God wants all of His words to be followed
- A. The Israelites were challenged to _____ their ways
 - B. The Israelites were challenged not to trust in _____ words
 - C. The Israelites were told to execute justice
 - D. The Israelites were commanded not to go after other _____
- III. God wants the lives of His children to be different
- A. Our lives should _____ the God we say we serve
 - B. Our sacrifices should be _____ on obedience

CONCLUSION

- Are you following and proclaiming _____ of God's words?
- Are you willing to repent and amend your ways?
- Are you living _____ than the world around you?